“ My Mom and Mary were first cousins. I remember her with fondness. She was always there with a good word for everyone. Gracious. Caring. Welcoming. May she rest in peace.

“ Mary was an inspiration to us -- she was a friend to all the ladies at Pocasset Bay Manor and never had anything but praise for those she met. She was a caretaker of others to the very end. We should all live with such integrity and compassion. Her light has dimmed but her spirit lives on. Love you, Mary!

“ Aunt Mary was such a huge part of my childhood. She was my “grown-up pal” and we had many adventures together. So glad that we were able to spend time together last summer. She was happy, and that’s how I want to remember her.

“ Aunt Mary was always happy and smiling. A wonderful woman who will be missed dearly.

“ Love and miss you already Aunt Mary. I remember asking aunt Mary if I could have some more ice cream when I was little, Aunt Mary told me " OK but remember when it's gone, it's gone." I live by those word still today. Have fun with my Mom and Dad. I know their arms are open wide for you. Ta Ta for now John Bayers
