

Alfred V. Saravo Jr.

August 5, 2021

Alfred V. Saravo Jr., 66, passed away peacefully on August 5, 2021 at HopeHealth Hilitar Hospice Center in Providence after an illness of 3 weeks.

He was the treasured son of the late Alfred V. Sr. and Adeline (Canale) Saravo.

Al grew up in North Providence where he helped coach the girls little league softball team to the 1979 World Series Championship.

After studying applied mathematics at Brown University, Al worked as a computer programmer notably for Fleet Bank and CVS until his retirement in 2017.

He was the beloved husband of Susan Saravo for 35 years and the loving brother of Kevin Saravo, Stephen Saravo and Lori Perrotta.

He was also a cherished uncle to many nieces and nephews, including Mary Saravo, Edward Gentile, Joseph Gentile, Matthew Gentile, Kaela-Rose Gentile, Kara Gentile, Jacob Eldred, Rowan Coleman, Helta Coleman and Ari Coleman.

His great heart will be sorely missed.

Funeral services are respectfully private.

Dear Stephen - I went to Brown with AI - he was a year ahead of me. We both lived at Plantations House when we were at Brown. I had not seen him since he graduated in 1977 and was saddened to see his obituary in the recently issued Brown Alumni Monthly. He was such a wonderful guy - warm, loving, gentle and giving. He had a great sense of humor and was liked by everyone. Although it has been 45 years since I last saw him, he touched my heart way back and I have never forgotten him. *Susan,
I was honored to be there on this special day-your wedding to Al. I am so, so sorry to learn of Al's passing. Even after all these years, I think of you and our friendship at Classical fondly. I pray you are doing well. God bless.*

So sad to see Al died. Everyone I met who knew Al had nice things to say about him. My heart goes out to Susan. Miss you Susan. I have many fond memories of growing up with you. Thanks for the kindness you always showed me.
