

Amanda Nichole Carrasquillo

September 9, 2022

Amanda Nichole Carrasquillo, 31 of Richmond, passed away unexpectedly on September 9th, 2022.

Born in Providence on August 19th, 1991. Amanda was a 2010 graduate of Chariho High School. She worked at Walmart in Westerly as a Team Leader. Any visit to Walmart wouldn't be complete without bumping into her in one of the isles and striking up a conversation. Her hobbies included baking, caring for her sunflowers, capturing photos of beautiful sunsets, and spending time with friends and family. She was known for belting out her favorite song lyrics and singing karaoke. Annual traditions Amanda enjoyed were her visit to Buttonwood Farms to see the sunflowers and her participation in tug-o-war with her team Korn Fed at the Washington County Fair.

Amanda is survived by her father Santiago M. Carrasquillo, grandparents Henry and Joyce Holland, siblings Dawn Carrasquillo, Justin and his wife Angela Carrasquillo, and Michael Carrasquillo. She was the beloved Aunt of Isabel Place, Kyla, Brandon, and Aaron Carrasquillo. She is also survived by several Uncles, Aunts, and cousins who she loved dearly.

She is predeceased by her mother Kathleen M. (Holland) Carrasquillo, maternal grandmother Arlene Holland, and paternal grandparents Gabino and Dominga Carrasquillo.

A celebration of life will held at the Calabrese Club, 28 Pleasant St. Westerly, R.I. from 2:00 - 6:00 p.m. on Sunday October 2nd 2022. All are welcome to attend.
