“ I met Andree through the Bargain Buyer. She called me for cleaning services, and I had the pleasure of working for her. She was a beautiful soul. My condolences to you Chris.

“ Andree was an extraordinary human being. She worked with my late husband Duncan for many years and no one could have been more helpful or more loyal.

She introduced us to Best Friends Animal Society when she knew we shared a love of animals. It has become the organization I support above all others. I will make another donation in honor of Andree. How she will be missed.
