

Anita J. Flint

October 8, 2022

Sadly, Anita J. (Carr) Flint of Hope Valley, RI, formerly of Charlestown, RI, left this earth to reunite with her husband Ronald A. Flint on October 6, 2022. She was surrounded by those she loved.

Born on February 7, 1950 in South Kingstown, RI, Anita made her home and raised her family in the Chariho area where she worked as a school bus driver for the Chariho School District for many years. She enjoyed her job as well as spending time with her family, reading, baking, sewing, and watching baseball and football. Her strong, kind, caring, generous nature made her the center of her family.

She will be greatly missed by her daughters, Samantha (Flint) Krueger of Winter Haven, FL, Sandra (Carr) Downie and her husband Charles of Putnam, CT and Audra (Flint) Burns and her husband Matthew of Hope Valley, RI and her sister, Lorna (Carr) Laurent and her husband Robert of Ashaway, RI. She will be missed forever by her grandchildren Katie Burns, Jacob Burns and Emma Krueger and by her great grandchildren Maeva and Kaydence and by many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her grandson Owen Krueger.

In loving memory, the family will gather for a private graveside ceremony on Saturday, October 22,2022. Following, her family, relatives, and close friends will celebrate her life at her home in Hope Valley, RI.

“ Dear Anita I always remember you since I was a young girl. When I would see you at home with your mom Aunt June. I really don't remember Uncle Jesse. But I do remember you a kind and wonderful soul who loved her family with all of her heart. God bless you and your family may you be at rest and happy until we meet again. Melody
