“ I am Alexander Laufer, the son of Elisabeth Laufer and the nephew of Aunt Anna. Even before I was born, Aunt Anna emigrated to America. So, as a child, I never knew her personally. However, she often sent Christmas gifts by mail to my brother Armund, whom she was the godmother of, and to me.

In the late 1970s, when I was still a teenager, she visited us in Germany. I was very surprised by how cheerful she was. She was always smiling, always kind, and laughed a lot. Her laughter was so contagious that I couldn't help but laugh along with her.

Rest in peace, dear Aunt Anna, and may you keep your joyful spirit forever. Thinking of you will always bring a smile to my face.
