

Anna Imrane

March 8, 2017

Anna Imrane, 37, of Warwick RI, died on Wednesday March 8th, 2017 at the Philip Hulitar Hospice Center after a long battle with head and neck cancer. Anna was born at the Barksdale Air force base in Bossier City , Louisiana to Alan Hisey of Hickory Grove, South Carolina and Lillian Benoit of Hope Valley, Rhode Island. She was the step daughter of Michael Benoit and Vareda Hisey. In addition to her Parents she leaves behind her husband Hicham Imrane, and her 3 children Lila, Mona and Esra, as well as siblings, Emily, Dale and Benjamin. She also leaves many cousins, nieces and nephews. Anna graduated from Chariho High School, and attended Johnson and Wales University. She was previously employed as a tax preparer, until becoming a stay at home Mom. Anna requested not to have a formal funeral, so we are having a memorial gathering to remember and celebrate her life. She also requested flowers to be sent in her honor. She loved receiving flowers! The Memorial will be on Saturday, March 11th between 1pm - 5pm at 529 Switch Rd. Wood River Jct, Rhode Island 02894. In the words of David Bowie: I don't know where I'm going from here, but I promise that it won't be boring.
