

Anthony Jerome Ciolli

July 13, 2023

We are sad to announce the passing of Anthony Jerome Ciolli of North Providence, Rhode Island. Anthony died at age 65 on July 13, 2023. Anthony passed away surrounded by his loved ones after a battle with illness.

Anthony was born on May 27, 1958, to parents Jennie Carmella (D'Arezzo) Ciolli and Anthony Joseph Ciolli.

Anthony is survived by his wife, Sharon (Capracotta) Ciolli; daughter, Carleigh (Ciolli) Periquito; step-daughters, Alexa (Papigiotis) Fraser and Ava Papigioitis; son-in-law's, Joe Periquito and Matthew Fraser; siblings, Sarah (Ciolli) Martino and Dennis Ciolli; grandson, Royce Fraser; and many loving extended family members and friends.

Anthony worked for over 20 years for the City of Providence at the Providence Water Supply Board. He was an avid sports enthusiast and a passionate dog lover; Anthony considered his dogs Bella and Nikki to be members of his family. He loved taking them for walks and enjoying an iced Dunkin' coffee, on a hot day.

In keeping with his wishes, services are private and for immediate family only. Those wishing to honor his life can make a donation in his name to American Diabetes Foundation or Providence Animal Rescue League.

I'm so sincerely sorry for your loss.. Stay Strong.. Hugs too Royce.. you've got an amazing family with heartfelt love for you.. Love, Coll ps..

I'll certainly miss Anthony's chit chats we shared while he walked his little dog or just getting the Mail. I was praying we'd have that Block party (LQCC).. but, He got tired & GOD needed another Angel..

“ My deepest condolences to you and his family. May all the memories you shared help you through this very difficult time. Anthony was loved by many with his easy smile and his fry sense of humor! Always had such a big heart and willingness to Help anyone. His great joy was being a father to Carleigh and would brag about her to all. So very proud of her. I was lucky enough to have known him for years and ti call him my friend. May he rest in the sweetest peace. You will never be forgotten 💔🙏. With my sympathy Carol Pray

“ Anthony was one of the kindest and full of life persons that we ever had the pleasure to know. A great brother-in-law that was there for everyone.

We will never forget the laughs, the political and sports conversations

You will be missed.

We hope God is a Bruins fan.

With love,

“ Carleigh, Ava, Sharon, Alexa, Dennis, Sarah & Joe, words will never be enough to say how sorry I feel about Anthony’s passing. I met Anthony on my first date with Alexa and will never forget how he welcomed me with open arms. I remember going to the house in the summer and Anthony would have fresh Dunkin Donuts coffee on the table, multiple for sale signs in front of the house “just in case they wanted to move” and the dogs freshly shaved so they could enjoy the warm air. He always was down for fun. When you were bored, needed someone to talk to or just hang out with, it was Anthony. He was like a noun. He had a story about every person, place or thing and knew just how to make you laugh. He will be greatly missed and this all doesn’t feel real. However he left us all with special memories and stories that we will always treasure.

Sharon and Family, There are no words that I can say that will take the pain away, all I can say and do is, say that I am praying for peace in your heart. We know he will not be suffering and that he is in heaven with our Heavenly Father. And there is no scars, sorrow, or pain there. God Bless you all In Christ Love, Nancy Covell
