“ Toni was a character like no other. She was the best hostess for parties, whether they were in her home or out at a venue. She thought of everything when planning, including music or some kind of entertainment. She was the queen of 'hen parties' too, which a small number of us got to enjoy yearly. It was always a good time and memorable. She's memorable and I miss her.

“ Toni was so strong through her illness, always taking on the next challenge with a positive attitude. We shared holidays and parties with her, those memories will be cherished always. I will always think of her when I assemble my Christmas tree and put up the ornaments she made, a talented crafter. Godspeed Toni may you finally find peace. Cheryl and Steven ROTELLA
