“ My heart goes out to the Boucher family. I'm just finding out about "Aunt Babara's" passing. So many memories from my childhood involve this lovely lady and family. The laugh, that rang out like a chime, is my favorite. Loving thoughts to the whole family.

“ I hope this finds its way to you, Debbie, Barbara, Chuck, and Brad. I only today found out that your mom passed away in June. If you remember, we were so close, we called your mom Aunt Barbara. Our family and yours were thick as thieves, hanging out together just about every Friday night and many summer days and evenings. I have no childhood memories that don't include your mom and all of you. Her laugh rings in my ears to this day. I miss you all, and hope that as the Christmas season and the new year come and go, your memories are happy ones.

“ It's been a long time since I've seen any of you. I guess my fondest memory is of the fun and craziness of getting ready for Deb's first wedding in the house in Harrisville. Hair up or hair down? And your mom saying that we all looked fine. I remember going to the house in Coventry to get Deb for one of our nights out and how gracious your mom always was and how she always made me feel welcome. My heartfelt sympathy to all at this difficult time. Beth Vicedomini Sturn

“ A flood of (mostly) fond, 50ish-years'-ago memories came rushing at me when I read of Barbara's - a/k/a, Mrs. Boucher's - sudden passing; may she rest in peace and enjoy being reunited with her beautiful parents. As an almost - at least honorary - family member through association with my beloved Pamela, I had the pleasure to be close to her and Rene and you, Pam's brothers and sisters, as we all experienced the roller coaster ride of Pam's illness which ultimately terminated with her untimely passing at a way-too-young and tender age. Through it all, though, there were many good times, much excitement and laughter, and a wide range of emotions felt and displayed. One constant was hope and another was Barbara's strength and steadfast coping.

Many of my fondest memories stem from the Chapel Street house and barber shop, the archery range, interactions with you and the Martins upstairs, Debbie's best girlfriend, Gail S., and the absolutely wonderful times at Nana's (the original Nana, that is) at 210 Poplar Drive. Despite their unconditional and unending love for their grandchildren, Number One Daughter, Barbara Estelle, remained the pride and joy of Charles & Estelle F. Hulme. Together again, now; what a wonderful reunion must be in progress !! I'm sure it's a 'high class affair' and that Charlie is beaming and can't get a word in edgewise as the three generations of his girls chat, catch up, and all raise their glasses to toast you, their survivors, for your life-long love and caring !! My sincere sympathy to each of you and may Almighty God bless you all; be at peace, today and always.

“ Nana, I'm so blessed to have been able to share whatever moments I could with you. I'm even more blessed to have been made a part of your beautiful family. I know we weren't close but my love for you will always be never ending. To say that you'll be missed is an understatement. I love you. Until we meet again. Xo.

Love always and forever,
