

Bartholomew J. Thorpe

June 10, 2022

Bartholomew J. Thorpe, “Pebo”, 76, passed away surrounded by his loving family on June 10, 2022.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Frank Thorpe and Mary (Paparelli) Thorpe; beloved husband of Joyce A. (Cordeiro) Thorpe for 55 years; devoted father of Scott Thorpe, and Anthony Thorpe; cherished grandfather to Destiny Rose Thorpe; and the late Alexandra “Moosh” Adamo the granddaughter that broke his heart. He leaves many cousins, nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, brother & sister-in-laws, and loving friends. He was the loving brother of the late Frank Thorpe.

He retired from the City of East Providence after 22 years in the Highway Department. He continued to pick wild mushrooms for many years before his illness. He enjoyed making sausage & wild mushroom sandwiches for many family and friends. They were loved by everyone. He enjoyed playing his 5 cent keno at Foxwoods, loved how he thought he could beat the system.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Friday, June 17, 2022 at 11:00 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church, 118 Taunton Avenue, East Providence. Burial will be private.

Previous Events

Mass of Christian Burial

JUN 17. 11:00 AM (ET)

Sacred Heart Church
118 Taunton Aveune
East Providence, RI

Tribute Wall

RM

“ Sorry to hear of Pebo's passing. Sending you all love during this difficult time.

Love Robi-Ann, Ana and family

robi-ann medeiros - June 16, 2022 at 08:02 PM

SS

“ So sorry for your loss. WE grew up with Pebo on Cedar ST. in Federal Hill. He , and his brother Frank will be remembered with good memories.

Dewey & Sandra Santomassimo

sandra santomassimo - June 16, 2022 at 10:31 AM

CP

“ So very sorry on the loss of Pebo. He was a neighborhood friend he and his brother Frankie Lots of laughs. May he rip. 🙏🙏🙏

Connie Barkett Peters - June 15, 2022 at 08:43 PM

RL

“ Sorry for loss. Pebo was a friend to my father. The two of them would talk about where they found the most mushrooms and who had the better sausage recipes. They were two of a kind. May God be with you in your time of sadness and have mercy.

Rocky Lembo - June 15, 2022 at 07:28 PM