

Betty Jean Stegall

March 6, 2026

Betty Jean Stegall, daughter of the late Neil G. Schreiner and Helen E. Schreiner, born May 5, 1945, in Washington, D.C., peacefully passed away on Friday, March 6, 2026, after battling years of dementia.

She was predeceased by her loving husband Virgil “Butch” Stegall and survived by her two children, her daughter Debra A. (Stegall) Morrison and her husband John B. Morrison and her son William S. Stegall and his wife Renée (Dubord) Stegall. She is also survived by her three most loved grandchildren, Briana Stegall, Nicholas Morrison and Gavin Stegall. She is also survived by her two loving sisters, Helen McPhillips and Barbara Bozzella, a sister Joan Edge, and predeceased by her brother Neil Schreiner along with several nieces and nephews.

Betty, Mom, Grandma, Betty Boop, Super Woman, Queenie were all ways to describe Betty, All in loving ways! She spent her life as a hardworking, dedicated, loving wife, loving mother, loving grandma, loving sister and a dear friend. She loved to laugh! and was always so full of life and wanted to enjoy every moment she had! She was always there for anyone in need and was an amazing role model who will be forever loved and missed dearly!

We pray that her mind is finally free and clear and that she is full of energy again and is dancing and laughing with our father!

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ 1 file added to the album betty

---

Kelt Smith - May 01 at 06:57 PM

HM

“ Rest in peace my beautiful sister, you will be missed. Until we meet again. I love you more.

---

Helen McPhillips - March 27 at 09:12 PM

JM

“ God bless our beautiful Betty. Love to you all.

Mark, Jean and family.

---

Jean Mann - March 27 at 08:52 PM