“ Pappy- i feel tremendous guilt that i made you agonize for the end.

You told me you wanted this all to end. But when the nurse asked me on the phone if your breathing was labored i said no - I didn't know the difference , it sounded the same

I let you down and should of had hospice there to help you sooner I was too busy playing calming music and telling you it was ok when u reached out at night

You were just trying to go. I am so sorry i made you wait

“ Brian, you and Karen were a match made in Heaven. So in love, and adventures galore. You made each other so very happy, and now she'll have all these beautiful memories you've shared, in her heart, mind and soul forever.

You will be forever missed, by all the lives you touched, during the 77 years you honored us here with your presence.

REST IN PEACE, BRIAN
