

Carlene A. Miranda

April 4, 2026

Carlene A Miranda (Lapolla), 83 years old of West Warwick RI, passed away at Hope Hulitar Center surrounded by love and peace.

Born in Providence, RI on April 14th, 1942, Carlene was the daughter of the late Carl and Anna Lapolla (Cannoni). Carlene was also the wife of the late Paul F Miranda Sr. Carlene became the caregiver of her husband in the last years of their marriage, showing how truly selfless and compassionate she was.

She is survived by her son, Paul F. Miranda Jr. of West Warwick, RI, her daughter, Tiffany Lema of East Providence, RI. Her grandchildren, Shaun Miranda (Danielle) of Barnhart, MO, Wayne Lema (Jesse) of East Providence, RI, Angela Miranda (Elijah) of West Warwick, RI, Joseph Lema (Caroline) of North Providence, RI, and Jack Miranda of West Warwick, RI. She is also survived by seven great grandchildren whom she shared a special bond with, Riley, Jaxon, Greyson, Lily, Elijah, Aurora, and Beatrice.

In the last years of her life, Carlene made friendships that were very dear to her. Carlene was very grateful for her close friends whom her granddaughter called "The Golden Girls of Monseigneur Deangelis". Her last birthday, a limo was rented and her friends took her to Foxwoods Casino. It was the best birthday she had ever had. Even in her last days, they came to play one last game of cards with her. She was so grateful to have experienced true friendship in her life.

Carlene was spunky, charismatic, stubborn and honest. She lived life on her terms, no exceptions. If you were around her, you couldn't help but be drawn to her personality. Her grandchildren will forever remember "Nana's Roni's & Secret Sauce" and her famous "Scooby Doo Snacks".

Carlene's love, strength, and compassion will live on through all who knew her. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered

Tribute Wall

TL

“ Mom I will always have memories I will miss you everyday until we meet again your daughter Tiffany

Tiffany A Lema - April 19 at 03:21 AM