

Carole Ann Kalunian Eckman

February 7, 2025

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Carole Ann Kalunian Eckman, 83, of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, who passed away on February 7, 2025. Born on April 12, 1941, in Pawtucket, Carole was a vibrant spirit who touched the lives of everyone who knew her.

Carole was married to her former spouse Robert. She had one beloved daughter, Mary Ann, and a cherished granddaughter, Brianne. She also leaves behind her dear sister, Esther and niece Shan. Carole was a woman who never let anything hold her back. She had an incredible zest for life, and her spirit will forever live on in her family and loved ones.

Carole's passions were as diverse as her personality. She was known for her love of dancing and her ability to be the life of the party. A gifted seamstress and consignment shop owner, Carole's creativity was evident in everything she did. Her love for cats and travel brought her joy, and she had an unmatched enthusiasm for embracing all that life had to offer. She was a true original, and as so many people have said, "They broke the mold when they made Carole."

Carole was loved by so many, and she showed love in countless ways. Her kindness, warmth, and laughter will be deeply missed, but her legacy will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Tribute Wall

DR

“ Carol's mom.and.my.mom were sisters so growing up we spent alot of time together. One of my.funny memories is when Carol was pregnant. She spent alot of time at our house when.it was dinner time we.gave her the whole back of the table Carol loved food and loved to eat. It was funny to.see her.back there with.all food around her.Be at peace and be happy love you cousin Donna .

Donna Ricci - February 12, 2025 at 05:23 PM