

Charles C. Bowdoin Sr.

September 24, 2018

Bowdoin Sr., Charles C. 80, died Monday, September 24, 2018 at Hopkins Manor due to complications related to Alzheimer's Disease. Born in Providence to the late Clifton W. and Rose (Nicholson) Bowdoin. He was raised in Providence and resided in East Providence for the majority of his life. He graduated from Hope High School in Providence and attended Emerson College, studying broadcasting. He had a career in radio broadcasting in the greater Boston area, RI and southeastern MA before becoming a customer service representative for many years with several cable companies in Massachusetts and most recently with MetLife in West Warwick. He leaves his daughter, Karin Capobianco and her husband Michael of Riverside, 2 grandsons, David and Nicholas, and his son, Charles Jr. of Riverside.

Tribute Wall

PS

“ I remember Charles Bowdoin from the 1980s, when he had a Saturday afternoon radio show on WARA-AM in Attleboro, Mass. I am sorry to learn of his passing. May he rest In peace.

Paul E. Lambert, Sr. - July 25, 2021 at 05:15 PM

LB

“ I am so sorry to read this, albeit, very late. Charlie and I worked together at WXTR in Pawtucket where he trained me for my on air shift. He was a wonderful man and mentor. May his soul rest in peace and may his memory be a consolation to you, his family.
Linda Bottega, Rio Verde, AZ

linda bottega - June 22, 2019 at 07:41 PM

EE

“ Very sorry for your loss!

Belle Evans

E BELLE EVANS - September 26, 2018 at 09:35 AM

FR

I wish you and your family the best, Karin.

Rick Reamer

Frederic Reamer - September 26, 2018 at 01:00 PM