

Charles E. Hoyt

August 27, 2020

Charles E. Hoyt, 89, of North Providence (47 yrs), passed away peacefully at home with his loving family by his side. Born in Attleboro, MA, he was the son of the late Thomas and Elsie (Becker) Hoyt. He was married to Ruth (Ohlson) Hoyt for 57 years before her passing in 2005.

Mr. Hoyt was an electrician for 42 years before retiring in 1991. An avid reader and accomplished writer, his favorite past time was using his infamous critical thinking skills to debate hot topics and world issues. His hobbies also included woodworking, gardening, cooking and playing the piano. Most of all, Mr. Hoyt loved spending time with his family and friends on any occasion.

He will be greatly missed by his children, Charles Hoyt Jr., of Pawtucket, Susan Wilcox and Pamela Sheehan, of North Providence; siblings, Flora Johnson and Carolyn Stephens; 11 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren. Besides his wife, he was preceded in death by his daughters, Sandra Miner and Nancy Letourneau; granddaughter Amy Letourneau; brothers William, Thomas, Donald and Robert along with his sisters Gertrude, Elsie, Geraldine, Marion, Dorothy and Charlotte.

All services will be held privately.

“ Dear Uncle Chuckie,
You threw the best family reunions. You made good trouble, you weathered all with immense humanity and kindness. Your laugh will be with me forever. Your stories, energy, silliness, and awful jokes are infamous. I'm so glad I got to see you and you got to meet Jane. The impact you've made in this world may actually last for generations. I will always remember you sitting down next to me when I was shy and little. I found a piano to pretend to play because i was afraid to make noise. You sat down and made a great crashing noise and then played me Music Box Dancer. Pure magic. The last time we met you said, "Mary, If i never get to see you again in this world, just know it was truly wonderful to know you and I look forward to knowing you in the next." See you one day Uncle chuckie, sucks that you're on the other side, but you made your life legendary. Jane loves catching frogs. Thank you.

“ Dad, there is no one in this world who could walk in your shoes. Your absolute generosity, love, humour, heart, and soul is something nobody could duplicate. I am at a loss without you, and you've left a huge hole in my heart. We all loved you so much. There has never been anyone who has even come close to you. Thank you for being my cheerleader, my hero. You saved me more than once. I love you so much, my heart hurts so much. I hope you're with your family. Mom, Sandra, Nancy, Amy, and your brothers and sisters. I will miss you dearly.

“ Uncle Chuck, although I'm in Texas, when I came up to RI I had to come see you. I always remember you coming to our house when I was a little kid and taking us fishing and frog hunting. I also remember you taking us to a pig farm to shot rats. You always made us happy, something we couldn't get at home. I especially loved all the stories you used to tell us. Your the best story teller I ever knew. You're going to be missed greatly. I love you Uncle Chuck. You as well as all of your family members will be in my prayers. RIP Uncle Chuck.
