

Charles William Prellwitz

September 7, 2023

Charles William Prellwitz, 79, of Hope Valley, RI, passed away in his home surrounded by his family on September 7, 2023. He was a loving husband to his wife Victoria of 60 years and cherished his family deeply. Charles was born on February 8, 1944, in Wakefield, RI, to Catherine (Blevin) Prellwitz and Ronald Prellwitz. He was preceded in death by his parents and daughters Genise Nichols and Cindie Davis.

Charles served his country with honor and dedication as a member of the US Navy from 1961 to 1965. Following his military service, he pursued a career as a machinist for over 40 years. Charles was known for his exceptional skills and commitment to his work.

Outside of his professional life, Charles had a wide range of hobbies and interests. He enjoyed playing cards, pool, and going to the casino. He also found great joy in spending quality time with his family and friends, watching his favorite TV shows, and engaging in lively conversations.

Charles will be dearly missed by his beloved wife Victoria Prellwitz, his son Charles William Prellwitz II, and his grandchildren Melissa Ross, Erica Carter, Christopher Davis, Stephanie Davis, Dylan Prellwitz, and Diana Mercurio. He is also survived by his siblings Sandra McKenna, Ronald Prellwitz, Cathy Prellwitz, and Anita Rolin, as well as nine great-grandchildren.

A memorial service to honor Charles's life will be held at First Baptist Church 1059 Main Street Hope Valley, RI on Thursday 9/14/23 at 11:00 a.m.

Following the service, a gathering will take place at the Prellwitz's home, where family and friends can share memories and support one another during this difficult time.

Charles William Prellwitz will forever be remembered for his love and dedication to his family, his honorable military service, and his passion for his hobbies. He leaves behind a legacy of cherished memories and will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
