

Daniel St.Pierre

January 24, 2023

Daniel “Danny” St.Pierre, 60, of Providence, RI, died peacefully in his sleep on January 24, 2023. Danny was born March 23, 1962, in Biddeford, ME to Rene and Rolande (Blais) St.Pierre.

Danny attended Cumberland High School in Cumberland, RI. He continued his education at George Washington University, graduating with a bachelor’s degree in political science.

After his graduation, Danny remained in Washington, DC and began his career as a social worker. He later moved to Massachusetts and ended back in Rhode Island where he spent the remainder of his life. Danny was a dedicated social worker who was passionate about helping others. The number of children and families that he touched is countless.

Danny loved to express himself through his hobbies that included reading, writing, cooking, baking and decorating. He had an impressive hat collection and proudly displayed them on his bedroom wall.

Danny was predeceased by his father, Rene St.Pierre. He is survived by his mother, Rolande St. Pierre, as well as his siblings, Linda Morin and her husband David, Cindy Cowee, Kevin St.Pierre and his wife Melissa, and Holly DeCesare and her husband Andrew. He was the loving uncle to twelve nieces and nephews and several great nieces and nephews. Danny will be missed by his many aunts, uncles and cousins.

To honor Danny's wishes, there will be no funeral services.

In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory may be made to Children's National Hospital Foundation, 1 Inventa Place, 6th Floor West, Silver Spring, MD 20910, Attn: Gift Administration. Please visit: childrensnational.org/giving
