“ *My condolences to all of the Marescos.....Donna was a wonderful lady, and the short time I spent with her was full of talks of crafts, crafting and sewing. I remember everything Donna touched she dd well, and I envied her ability to try something new. I'll never forget the Christmas Steven and I spent up in Rhode Island - the house was beautiful and full of laughter and family conversation. I know she will be missed by all who's lives she touched. For those who don't know my (ex) married name, this is Chris Ventola writing. I met Donna when she was about 21 yrs old when I spent the summer in Florida with cousin Carol. Donna & Jim had only Amy & Jamie then, and they were under 4 yrs old I believe. I was so in awe of Donna- she was beautiful- tall & slim, thick blonde hair in a 60's flip, smartly dressed; wonderful smile, & so smart & classy. I thought she looked like she could be in a beauty pageant. Even so young she was a great cook, great mom & wife & homemaker. I loved her laugh & sense of humor.

Carol & I babysat Amy & Jamie a few times, & loved doing it- such well-behaved, beautiful little girls. And Donna would always leave us a 'treat' to eat. We shocked her one night, though, when we ate half a bag of Oreos. To us, it was just a snack, but I'll never forget Donna's reaction: "You ate half a bag?! Of Oreos? A whole half a bag?! How could 2 slim girls eat that much?" But she had a smile on her face, and we knew she was teasing, so we said something like, "we're teenagers!" We all laughed, & all ended well (& we were even invited back!)

I saw Donna on & off through the years, and so thoroughly enjoyed her - as did my mother, Joan who loved her. They'd talk for hours about homes, furniture, decorating, crafts, kids, family- they had so much in common.

Distance means nothing where memories, family & love are concerned. Donna will remain alive in our hearts & memories until we're all joined together in that great beyond. I know she's there and enjoying time with so many of her loved ones who've passed on.

My heart goes out to my cousin Jim, her loving husband, and to all their children & grandchildren. I wish you healing and love, and happy memories to help you through this difficult time of missing her here in body. You've made a large, amazing family- & she's always a part of that & I believe always close in spirit with her large, loving heart & soul. God bless you all; my prayers go out to you daily for healing - be good to each other.

Much love, cousin Chris
