“ I had lost touch with Frederick, and worked at a local store where he would come in for his Sunday Journal and lottery numbers. He was always the first person to make me and the girls laugh, and he was the sweetest customer we had. My condolences to his family, he was a light, and will be missed.

“ I just found out about Fred's passing yesterday and I'm so sorry that I didn't know sooner. Elaine and I talked a lot on Facebook but once she passed I should have kept up with Fred more. He was quite a character and loved by all that knew him. RIP Fred 🙏💕🙏

I knew you for more years than my own Father. You were quick with the one liners! You told it like it was with no sugar coating. You were a great Father and Papa. I'm so glad you were in my children's lives. You've certainly left a huge void in our lives. Love you and miss you always.

“ I remember when I would go to his house when I was younger with Apryl. He was full of life and he was so funny. When he moved into Apryl's house he always made me laugh once I walked in. I remember the one time I brought two of my blankets for a sleepover and said what did you bring blankets for a whole platoon. I thought it was so funny. I miss your jokes papa ❤️

“ I’ll forever cherish the memory of my papa always being a stern voice and telling me the things I didn’t want to hear, but knew I had to. Tough love was his love language. I will remember his quick wit and sense of humor as well, even at 91 he was one of the funniest people I know. I love and miss you papa. ❤️

“ When I was a kid, I always saw Fred as the funny grandfather with a boxer dog. And I remember seeing him throughout my life at special events for Autumn and he was always kind and always knew how to make people laugh. And I’ll never forget Autumn’s endless comical stories about him. He had a witty personality like no other and that was never lost. He was extremely loved by his family and I know he loved them back with all his heart, my love and thoughts go out to his family during this time, he will be so missed in this world ❤️
