Jane Mason Fuller, 95 of Lenox, passed peacefully September 23, 2023.

She was a graduate of East Providence High School and Bryant University. Upon graduation she moved to Lenox, Mass where she lived until 2021, when she moved to Rhode Island to be close to family.

She taught Business at Lenox High School, then served as the first female Bridgeton, Maine, Chatham, Seekonk and Lenox, MA, Daytona Beach and Jupiter, FL and Johnson's Pond in Coventry, RI were her favorite places. She was always up for an adventure; most comfortable in jeans, a t-shirt and sweatshirt.

Her happy place was by the water with family and friends; to walk the beach, watch a sunrise, sunset or campfire, to catch a fish or frog, sing with the kids, soak up the sun, visit a lighthouse, ride with the top down, watch the Patriots, reading and talking with friends were her joys.

She was always kind and genuine. She loved knowing what everyone was up to. She was a good listener and gave advice only if asked, but knew how to make you think. Her quick wit, wisdom, hugs and memory will be missed by all whose lives she touched.

Whenever you see a thanksgiving sandwich, whole belly clams, grilled cheese and tomato, mince pie, remember no matter how full you were she was always " Fuller".

Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers donations In her memory would be welcomed by Steere House towards a handicap van used by residents for appointments, 100 Borden St, Providence, RI 02906.

“ In the old Lenox High School and in the southeast corner of the first floor, Jane Fuller had a prized room for her typewriters and gave me and probably many other students the lifetime gift of touch typing. For this, I am and have been forever grateful to her. Under the heading Where Were You When, I recall her strength and solemnity when, during a Student Council meeting she was called away. On her return she informed us the devastating news that President Kenndy had been assassinated.

“ Miss Fuller was my typing & shorthand teacher at Lenox High School. She was a tough cookie, but very fair. Really enjoyed her classes.

“ Miss Fuller was my typing and shorthand teacher and was my favorite teacher of all time. She always had a smile and a no-nonsense personality that was somehow lovable. She kind of took me under her wing and always encouraged me. The summer after I graduated she called me and said there was a job opening at the local bank and that I should get up there as soon as possible. I did and immediately got the job, I am sure with her recommendation. Thanks to her I found my career and loved my bank job for the next 35 years. She will always be in my heart. Jackie Benham

“ My first year of teaching was in Lenox and with 6 different Math classes, I was overwhelmed until I was encouraged, befriended, and supported by Ms Fuller. She was wonderful and her advice helped me throughout my teaching career. I will be forever grateful to her. May she rest in peace!
