

John Thomas Healey

June 3, 2024

John Thomas Healey, ('Johnny') of East Providence passed at home on June 3, 2024 at the age of 66. Born in Providence RI, he was the son of John T. Healey of East Providence, and the late Joan M. (Cordeiro) Healey, and father of the late Michael Titus. He will be remembered affectionately by a brother William (Billy) Healey and 4 sisters, Deborah Perry and her husband Jess, Patricia Hannaway and her husband Ray Bettencourt, Sandra Bettencourt and her husband Stephen, and Karen Cunha and her husband Edward. Johnny also leaves many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews. As a graduate of RISE in Prov, RI, Johnny was skilled in electronics and spent most of his life as a mechanic in the automobile industry, having a passion for mini-bikes, motorcycles, and race cars. He also had musical talents, playing piano, organ, accordion and trumpet. Those who knew him will fondly remember him for his kindness and heart of gold, along with his mischievous sense of humor and witty sarcasm. Rooted deeply in his faith in God and strong belief in life of the everlasting, he loved his family with his whole heart and will be warmly remembered by the lives he touched.

A Funeral Service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Friday, June 14 at St. Martha's Church, 2595 Pawtucket Ave. in East Providence, RI. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the NAMI or JED foundation.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his faithful servants." - Psalm 116:15
