

John David Lomba

September 3, 2022

John David Lomba, 59, of Warwick, RI, passed away unexpectedly on September 3, 2022 in his home.

John was born in Providence on January 18, 1963. He graduated from Mount Pleasant High School in 1981 and went to the Sawyer School in Pawtucket, RI for broadcasting.

John worked in many fields including the service industry, D.A.R.E. America, broadcasting at a local radio station, and modeling. He enjoyed gardening, the beach, Halloween, and loved animals. John was also actively involved in Victims of Hate Crimes and an advocate and member of the LGBTQ+ community.

For a number of years, John volunteered much of his time to the March of Dimes Foundation and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation overseeing various Skate-a-thons, and conceptualizing and building various Haunted Houses in RI.

John is survived by his mother Sylvia (Walason) Lomba, his sister Janice Lomba Gomes, brother Ronald Lomba, nieces Kristina Barbosa, Tiffany Devlin-Perry, Ashley DellaVentura, and Krystal Lomba, nephew Robert DellaVentura, grand-nephews Logan and Ethan, and other family and friends. He also leaves behind his beloved dog Ruby.

John is preceded in death by his father John Kidd Lomba; a World War II Veteran and Purple Heart Recipient.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Thursday, September 15, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. in Saint Gregory the Great Catholic Church, 360 Cowesett Road, Warwick, RI. Burial will be private.

Dear Sylvia, I am so sorry. He tried so hard to live. I often thought of him and, as a mother myself, wished I could help him. I will pray for him and you for Jesus to give you inner peace as He is with you always.
