“ My sister Juanita was not only my sister but my friend. We did many things together and shared many things like our love of cooking. Juanita was a great cook but couldn't cook a pan of oatmeal to save her life. She enjoyed making crafts, shopping and loved music. Christmas was her favorite time of year and she would very lovingly decorate her entire house. She was constantly surrounded by the people she loved. There will be a great hole in my heart until I see her once again in heaven. I love you Juanita, till we meet again.
