

Judith Ann VanSant

May 21, 2020

Judith Ann (Haug) VanSant, 80, passed away Thursday, May 21, 2020 at Hope Health Hultar Hospice Center in Providence, RI following her battle with COVID-19 virus. Born November 29, 1939 in Illinois, she was the only child of Edward T. Haug and Margaret (Swank) Haug. Judy graduated from Clifton Heights High school in PA and briefly attended University of PA Nursing School before getting married in 1958. Following the births of her 7 children, Judy worked for many years for Amtrak before retiring. Judy is survived by her 7 children, E.A. VanSant Jr. of Kennett Square PA, Edward VanSant and his wife Delia of Oxford, PA, Leslie Maymon and her husband Jeffrey of Narragansett, RI, Evelyn Murphy and her husband Michael of Saunderstown, RI, Amy Hankins of Drexel Hill, PA, Judith Galantino and her husband Carl of Media, PA, Eleanor Forte and her husband Robert of Harrisville, RI, her 8 grandchildren: Jessica, Jacquelyn, Frank, Zane, Hannah, Bridget, Carl and Rose, and her 4 great grand -children: Armani, Cora Belle, Luna Mae, and Lincoln.

Judy loved reading, traveling and driving her car, she was always ready for a road trip. She had many, many friends and asked to be remembered as a kind, loyal and friendly person who was always ready to help in people's time of need. Judy was generous to a fault, going without so that others had.

Tribute Wall

SW

“ To Leslie and her family. So sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was a beautiful woman. You look a lot like her. You were so lucky to have her all these years. May she rest in peace. 💕💕💕

Shirley Woodward - June 13, 2020 at 08:02 AM