There are many gifts that God gives his own. Jesus certainly gave Kristen the gift of generosity. I know many might remember the little Crystal angels she would make come and spread the joy to everyone she saw. Christian was a very creative lady, willing to decorate and make many gifts and just hand them to you as a surprise present. If he was sick she was always there with a heating pad, a brace for your back, or hand or foot or some kind of lotion to ease pain those are the things that we will never forget. Kristen really had a rough road, with a lot of pain and suffering. It was time for God to take her home. Now she is in the presence of the Lord and will be forever. We will meet someday. It was nice to be a friend. Love Mary Mattiace
