

Linda V. Jacobs

May 13, 2014

Linda V. Jacobs (née Jorgensen) Beloved wife of Philip, mother of Christopher and step-mother of Leslie, Julie, and Marc, died unexpectedly in her home in Providence on May 13, 2014. Linda was born in Montreal, Canada, and lived there until her marriage to Philip took her to several other cities in Canada and the U.S., settling in Rhode Island in 1989. Linda will be deeply mourned by Philip, her son, Christopher (Vermont), step-children, Leslie (Maryland), Julie (Canada), and Marc (New Zealand), her sisters, Vesta, Sue, and Christine (all living in Canada) and their families. A loving and kind friend to many, with a gentle nature and wonderful sense of humor, Linda will be greatly missed by all whose lives she touched. In lieu of flowers, donations in Linda's name may be made to the Multiple Sclerosis or Down's Syndrome societies at nationalmssociety.org or ndss.org. A memorial gathering to celebrate Linda's life will be held on Saturday August 2, 2014 from 2-4 p.m. in Providence. Email Leslie Jacobs Kendrick to RSVP and for location. Kendrick@jhu.edu.
