

Lois A. Emmett

April 13, 2022

Lois A. (Steele) Emmett, 87, passed away April 13, 2022.

Born in East Providence, she was the daughter of the late Thomas and Marsha (Grzyb) Steele; wife of the late Richard F. Emmett; devoted mother of Tamera and Scott Emmett; cherished grandmother of Marcus Vitali, Jr.

Lois enjoyed frequenting flea markets. She also had a booth at the Bargain City Flea Market in Cumberland prior to it permanently closing. Her favorite items to purchase always had some sort of sparkle or bling to it, which reflected in her personality. She was a lover of cats and had them as pets throughout her life. She was a loving wife, mother and grandmother and will be missed by all.

A Private Burial will take place in the Rhode Island Veterans Memorial Cemetery.
