

Lorena Patricia Herrera

January 7, 2026

Lorena Patricia Herrera, age 59, passed away peacefully on January 7, 2026, in her home, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born on September 15, 1966, in Escuintla, Guatemala. Throughout her life, Lorena was known for her unconditional love, remarkable strength in the face of adversity, and her unwavering dedication to her children and their future. Her sacrifices were profound and will leave a lasting, generational impact.

Lorena was a devoted mother, grandmother, daughter, and sister. She is survived by her spouse, Luis F. Perez; her son, Wilfredo J. Folgar Herrera; and her daughters, Sherly P. Folgar Herrera and Luisafernanda Perez Herrera.

Above all, she will be remembered for her courage, deep faith, and the boundless love and devotion she gave to her children. She lived selflessly, always putting her family first and loving with her whole heart. Guided by humility and an unshakable belief in God's purpose, she faced life with grace and strength.

Lorena was the best mother, sister, and friend anyone could have been blessed to know. Her gentle spirit and loving touch will forever be felt by all who knew her and by the many who now share in the sorrow of her loss.

We find peace in knowing that Lorena has been welcomed into God's loving embrace. Her legacy and her spirit live on through her children, and she will forever be remembered for the unconditional love she gave so freely.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Tuesday, January 13th at 10 AM in St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, 69 Quincy Avenue, Pawtucket, RI. Burial will be private.
