March 4, 2018

Lorraine A. Dobrwado, 83, of Pascoag, RI passed way on Sunday, March 4, 2018. Lorraine was born in Woonsocket, RI to Albert and Yvonne (Beaubien) Robinson. She attended St. Charles School (where she was a soloist in the choir) and Woonsocket High School (where she was a majorette in the High School band). She worked as a seamstress and supervisor for Fashion Sportswear, as well as working for CVS as a picker for over 20 years. When she retired, she worked for the Burrillville School lunch program, which brought her much joy. She was a lifelong parishioner at Sacred Heart Church. She enjoyed going to Foxwoods to play video bingo, going to the movies, crossword puzzles, board games and spending time with her family and friends. Lorraine is preceded in death by her parents, Albert and Yvonne; one brother, Raymond Robinson; and her husband, Edward Dobrwado. She is survived by daughters, Donna (Lawrence) Davis and Darlene (Gerald) Pomes; two grandchildren, Casey Pomes and Cory Pomes; and two great grandchildren, Jameson Pomes and Deven Pomes -- the loves of her life! The family also wishes to extend their gratitude to the staff of the Ballou Home in Woonsocket for the exceptional care they provided to Lorraine and support to the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the American Cancer Society. Please note date change due to expected storm: Mass will be held at Sacred Heart Church (Olo Street, Woonsocket, RI) @ 10:00 am, Thursday, March 15th, 2018.
