

Madeline Mary Hackett

August 26, 2025

Madeline Mary (Boucher) Hackett, age 88, from Sandy Hook CT, passed away peacefully on Tuesday August 26, 2025, at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence. She was born February 6, 1937 in Bridgeport CT, to the late Thomas and Madeline (Schmid) Boucher. Madeline was a 1955 graduate of Lauralton Hall in Milford CT. She married Milton “Bud” Sherman Hackett on June 22, 1957, in Bridgeport CT. They lived and raised their four boys in Sandy Hook CT.

Madeline worked as a local bank manager in Newtown CT until retirement, after which she and her husband “Bud” enjoyed traveling around the country and abroad, finally settling in North Kingstown RI. She truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; enjoying the RI beaches, cooking, watching grandchildren’s sports, and visiting with family and friends.

Madeline is predeceased by her loving husband Milton Hackett, and two sisters, Susan Medve and Josephine Boucher. She is survived by her brother Thomas Boucher of Denver CO; four sons; Jeffrey (Elizabeth) Hackett of Southbury CT, Peter Hackett of Vernon VT, Gregory (Colleen) Hackett of Little River SC, and Patrick (Allicyn)Hackett of Tiverton RI. Also four grandchildren; Kelly Glenn, Ryan Hackett, Sean Hackett, and Matthew Hackett, along with three great-grandchildren; Carly Glenn, Mason Hackett and Johnny Glenn; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services and interment will be private with immediate family, where she will join her late husband of 52 years at the RI Veterans Memorial Cemetery.
