

Mauricio Valencia

February 20, 2023

Mauricio Valencia, 67, of Pawtucket, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2023.

Big Moe, as he was called by many, is predeceased by his parents Teresa and Jaime Valencia, and his legacy includes daughter Natasha Valencia and spouse Daniel Vasquez, along with grandchildren Theresa, Daniella, and Alejandro; son Christopher Valencia and spouse Michelle Munoz, along with grandchild Sebastian; and pet parrot of 28 years, Pepe.

Coming from a large family, Mauricio was the eldest of 8 siblings he was very close with:

Diego, Sergio, German, Sonia, Luisa, Pablo, and Piedad; along with stepmother Eugenia and many nieces and nephews.

Mauricio was a long time beloved employee at Rhode Island College in the IT Department for 25 years. He was also very active in the Colombo-American community and will be missed by many.

The family is in the process of arranging a mass to remember Mauricio's life and will announce the details soon. In lieu of flowers, the family will be collecting funds for a one-time academic scholarship to be awarded at Saint Raphael academy. Go Fund Me Link: <https://gofund.me/56d3143e>.
