

Nancy A. Catoni

August 25, 2018

Catoni, Nancy, of Cranston, died August 25, 2018, at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of Mario F. Catoni and mother of Raymond Catoni. She was the daughter of the late Mauro and Angela (Bonanno) Garofalo.

Aunt of many nieces and nephews, Nancy also leaves many dear friends.

She was the sister of the late Restie Delmonico, Helen Mollica, Esther Barbato, Rita Iafrate and Salvatore Garofalo.

Although unable to attend church services in recent years due to illness, Nancy was devoted to her Loving God.

Nancy went to Providence public schools, and was a member of the Central High School Graduating Class Of 1948.

She worked at the Rhode Island Hospital Trust National Bank from 1947 to 1965 and as a Paraprofessional for the Cranston School Department from 1971-1995.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Friday, August 31st, at 11:00 a.m. in St. Rocco Church, Atwood Avenue, Johnston.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Melissa Delmonico

Scholarship/Charity Foundation, www.melissadelmonico.org.

“ Dear Mario and Raymond, I am so sorry about Aunt Nancy's passing. Even though we drifted apart as a family, I have so many fond memories of her. She was a good friend and a support to my Mom up until not too long ago. Now she can be with all of her Sisters - Rita, Esther, Elena, and Ray as they all have been "promoted to glory". My sincere condolences and much love to you both. Aunt Nancy will always have a place in my heart and memory.

“ Uncle Mario and Raymond

So sorry for your loss of Auntie Nancy. She was a good Aunt and a very good Friend. She always thought of others first before herself. I will miss our little visits and all the good times that we had. She was not only my Aunt, but a true Friend as well. She was very good to me and did things for me that I will never forget. She is no longer in pain which is a great relief. She is with all her Family now and having a good time cooking and fighting with each other. I will miss her a lot, but know now that her pain is gone. RIP Auntie Nancy. I will Love you always and until we meet again. Thank you for all the things that you did for me from when I was born until now. Will miss you and Love you always.

Your niece forever

“ Dear Mario and Raymond,

We are very sorry for your loss. Nancy was a friend and neighbor for over 50 years. We had a lot of laughs growing up. I loved when she called me Jo- Ann. May she rest in peace. Love Lee, Bob, Doreen, and Barbara.

“ Dear Mario, Raymond and Family,
Nancy was a special person. She was devoted to her faith, family, friends and students. We worked together at Gladstone School. Although I didn't see her often, we did stay in touch. She never failed to tell me how good her family was to her. She appreciated all that you did for her. May you find comfort in your treasured memories, and may she rest in God's peace.
Sincerely,
Barbara and Jerry Olean
