

Nancy McIntosh

January 29, 2023

Nancy McIntosh, 84, of Warwick passed away peacefully at Kent Regency on Sunday, January 29th, 2023.

Born and raised in the Fairlawn section of Pawtucket and attending Johnson & Wales University, Nancy wed and spent over 20 years living in Michigan and finally relocated to Warwick, RI. She was the daughter of the late John Edward Nickerson & Laura Alice (Goodwin) and sister to the late Richard Nickerson & Gifford Nickerson.

She spent 23 years working for Michigan Bell and then AT&T, and retired from her position in Executive Accounts in 1995. She then worked at Citizens Bank for 16 years and finally retired from her position in 2014. She absolutely loved working, took great pride in her respective positions, and she had great affection for many of her coworkers.

Nancy was a devoted Mother and Grandmother. She was a cherished Mother to Richard R. May, Scott A. May, the late Donna L. May, Juli L. McIntosh, and adopted and raised her Grandson, Bradley R. May. She had several beloved Grandchildren, many of them called her "Grandma Darlin" and include Leila May, Morgan May, McKenna May, Scot May, Jayli Martin, Ryan May, Shawn May, Rosamond Fairweather, and Christian Fairweather. She also leaves behind 3 Great-grandchildren, Ailish May, Emersyn May, and Jack May.

Please join Nancy's family for a Celebration of life luncheon to be held at Cucina Rustica located at 555 Atwood Avenue in Cranston on Saturday, February 11th, 2023 from 12:30 - 3:30 p.m.
