Pasquale served nine years in the Rhode Island National Guard as a Machinist and pursued his own career as a machinist. He was a member of the Smithfield Elks Club and a member of St. Theresa's Church in Harrisville for many years.

His greatest passion was for the ocean, whether it was sailing on it or just sitting on the beach. He was a very patriotic man and was adamant of raising and lowering the American flag with the POW flag flying below it every single day.

He had many hobbies over the years but his greatest joy of all was spending time making memories with family and friend.

“ Pat is the reason I had such wonderful high school years! He and I both had eczema. He shared the name of his doctor with me after a severe breakout of mine. I was 13. If he hadn't talked to my dad and urged him to try out the new doctor, I probably would not have been as outgoing and normal as I was. Thank you Pat!
