

Patricia L. Silva

December 6, 2024

Patricia L. Silva, 87, passed peacefully on December 6, 2024 at the HopeHealth Hular Hospice Center after a courageous battle with Machado Joseph Disease. She was born in Providence on August 17, 1937 to the late Anthony Silvia and Mary (Thomas) Silvia.

She had been a compassionate caregiver to many for many years as a visiting nurse. After retiring from Visiting Nurses, she became manager at Muldowney's Pub in Providence, where she enjoyed the camaraderie and friendship of the patrons.

She also enjoyed crafting, shopping, cooking and spending time with her family.

She is survived by her loving spouse, Roderick Prouty, her two daughters, Deborah Pinto, of Pawtucket, RI, and Donna Pinto, of Pawtucket, her grandson, Nicolas Pinto, and her great grandson, Troy Pinto, also of Pawtucket. Patricia is also survived by two sisters, Donna Joly, and Sandra Markley. She was predeceased by her sister Bette Ann Burke, and brother, Thomas Silvia.

The family would like to extend a special Thank You to Pat's CNA, Claudia Santos, and Claudia's daughter, Hailey, for their loving care for Pat. They were there for Patricia's every want and need, going well beyond the call of duty. Another Thank You to the nurses and staff at Hope Health for their help and care during this most difficult time for Patricia and her family. A private family memorial service will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Pawtucket.

“ *My name is Debbie and I spent time with Pat at St.Paul's Church. Then I was lucky to visit Pat at her home and she LOVED her visits with my Big Husky, Frankie would give her so many kisses. I'm sure that Pat is taking good care of Frankie that passed away 3 months ago.
Rest in Peace my Beautiful, Amazing Lady!
Love you*
