

Ramon Elias Murillo

December 16, 2020

Ramon Elias Murillo 87, of North Providence, passed away Wednesday, December 16, 2020 from previous health complications compounded by Covid-19. He was the beloved husband of Ana (Heno) Murillo whom he was married to for 59 years. Born in Manizales, Colombia, Ramon worked as a technician in the textile industry there and then immigrated to the United States in 1972 and worked in the textile manufacturing industry here for twenty years. His proudest moment is when he and his wife received their U.S. citizenship in November of 1995. Besides his beloved wife, he leaves his devoted daughters Beatriz E. DiRissio and her husband Edward, Diana Moniz and her husband Carlos and his two treasured grandchildren Giuliano and Luke. Due to Covid-19 restrictions there will be a private Mass of Christian Burial at Mary Mother of Mankind Church, 25 Fourth Street, North Providence on Saturday, January 2, 2021 at 9:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers donations in his memory may be made to the National Kidney Foundation <https://www.kidney.org>

“ families were very close, we went on beach trips together, had dinner gatherings and sleep overs, Don Ramon was always cheerful and had a really good sense of humor, he loved his daughters and wife very much it always showed in his eyes. May he Rest In Peace and may the Lord grant Diana, Beatriz and their mom doña Graciela the strength to carry on.
