

Richard P. Mann

February 13, 2021

Richard P. Mann, 89, of Seekonk, MA, passed away at his home on February 13, 2021. He was predeceased by his beloved wife, Barbara (Baker) Mann and his son Richard Mann. Born in East Providence, he was a son of the late Archie and Elizabeth (Pressley) Mann.

He was a Navy Veteran of the Korean War and received both the Bronze Star and Purple Heart for his service. Richard was an avid boater and fisherman, earning his captain's license through the US Coast Guard, and enjoyed running fishing charters out of Snug Harbor. He also was active in the Narragansett Bay Power Squadron District 14. Richard was employed many years as a Jewelry Mold Designer at Herff-Jones of Providence/Warwick. He is survived by his nieces and nephews.

Due to COVID restrictions, a Celebration of his life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ Just realized that Richard (Dick) Mann passed away. I always enjoyed his company at work. He was funny and teased people a lot. May God in His infinite wisdom comfort you!

*Carleen Hare
Rio Rancho, NM*

Carleen Hare - December 03, 2021 at 02:48 PM

LK

“ *Richard,
I will miss the times we had together and so proud to say you were my cousin. Thanks for the memories of a loving relative.
Cousin Lisa J. King*

lisa king - March 02, 2021 at 12:03 PM