

Roger Donald Lemois

December 15, 1943 - November 28, 2024

Roger Donald Lemois, 80, of 95 Archambault Avenue, West Warwick, passed away peacefully on Thursday, November 28th, 2024 with his family by his side.

Born in West Warwick, he was the son of the late Albert & Mary Lemois. He was a resident of West Warwick for most of his life.

Roger always enjoyed taking his family for car rides, fishing, going to the casino, yard sales & auctions. He was also known as 'Roger Dodger' on the CB Radio where he loved listening & joining in on the conversation.

Roger is survived by his 4 beloved children, Roger D. Lemois Jr. & his wife Barbara of Coventry, Patricia A. Northup (Lemois) & her husband Donald Northup of West Warwick, Mary E. Lemois & her companion Robert Bowes of West Greenwich, & Ricky Lemois & his companion Shantel Leitl of Springfield, Massachusetts.

He was the brother of the late Raymond Lemois & his wife Janet, the late Norman Lemois & his late wife Joan, Gertrude Santilli (Lemois) & her late husband Nicholas, & Rita Bowen (Lemois) & her husband Andrew.

Roger also leaves behind his companion Lee Martin & many loving nieces, nephews, grand children & great grandchildren.

Roger was always well liked & known in the community, especially around the manor's he resided in. He will always be missed & loved beyond measure.

Tribute Wall

PN

“ I have many memories with my Dad! To many to say. One is going to the auctions just me and him we had fun doing that together! I am greatful for all the great times we had with One another. I will miss you so...til we see one another it's never goodbye I will meet you one day again in Paradise! I Love you ☐

---

Patricia Northup - December 07, 2024 at 06:50 PM

DL

“ My uncle Rodger,
I always love spending time with him. He has been so nice to all. One of the nicest things he's done was at my wedding I was not able to afford for a photographer and he decided to be the one to take the pictures for my wedding. And he didn't amazing job. Love you and miss you Uncle.
Denise Lowell

---

Denise Lowell - December 06, 2024 at 01:19 PM