

Ronald J. Russo

May 11, 2023

Ronald J. Russo, 76, of West Warwick, passed away on May 11, 2023. Born in Providence in 1946 to the late William and Angelina (Montella) Russo, he was the younger brother of the late William Russo, and the older brother of the late David Russo. Ron was an independent Rhode Island constable for 6 decades and mentored many of the constables now working across the state. He wrote the book on constable duties, and always urged his fellow constables toward education and professionalism. Additionally, he served as a past president of the Rhode Island Independent Constable Association and lobbied for changes at the state level for the betterment of all constables. Ron enjoyed his work but always found time for family and friends. He leaves behind his devoted partner Patricia, his son Ronald, four grandchildren, and three stepchildren. Before falling ill, he enjoyed golfing, going to the movies, swimming, and dining out.
