

Rosemary Pendleton

February 23, 2025

At age 78, the Lord called Rosemary Pendleton home and she graciously answered on February 23, 2025.

Rosemary was born in Waterville, Maine on October 15, 1947 to John and Lois (Berry) Worster.

Rosemary was known for her big heart, smile, her joy, honesty, and faith in God. She loved sweets, especially apple pie and coffee ice-cream, though nothing topped her love of family and her devout faith in God. God was Rosemary's anchor through the trials of life.

She was a devoted pastor's wife to her husband, Hank, during their 19 years of marriage. They frequently had bible studies, prayer meetings, and breakfast brunches with their congregations.

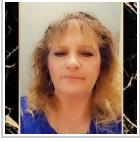

She was predeceased in death by her husband Henry "Hank" Pendleton and brother, John Worster.

She is survived by her daughters: Jennifer Dame of Exeter, Rhode Island and Pamela Chandler of Farmington, Connecticut, her grandchildren: Rebecca (Aidan) Johnson of Illinois, Carissa (Will) Hessert of Connecticut, and Sarah and Jacob Dame of Rhode Island, and her great-grandchildren: Josephine,

Genevieve, and Jameson Hessert of Connecticut.

The family would like to thank Kent Regency and The Grand-Islander Nursing home for their care in Rosemary's final years.

Tribute Wall

“ Oh my goodness I did not know she passed away. Tim and I and our kids used to come to church every week and we would see Pastor Henry and Rosemary. When she sang she sang loud and proud ( I loved that lady- she will truly be missed) I am so sorry for your loss. She is with her love again

Donna Pendleton

---

Donna Pendleton - June 11, 2025 at 01:04 PM