“ Sharon and I were classmates & friends when we both attended Salve Regina University back in the 1970s. I recall she and I would have discussions over the Black Pearl's clam chowder about the Eastern Religion class we both were taking at Salve. She was a lovely lady. So sorry for your loss.

“ Sharon was one of our neighborhood Moms growing up in a very close knit community in the Castle Hill area of Newport. Her and my Mom were great friends and loved their “happy hour” out on the deck sipping a beverage and enjoying the ocean. Kim and Michael, I was very fond of your Mother and grieve with you. My deepest condolences to you both.

“ Very sorry t hear of your loss. Sharon was a sweet and caring person who brightened up our childhood neighborhood. She and Bunny Tick knew how to keep us wild kids in check.
