

Sterling G. Landry

November 22, 2021

Sterling G. Landry, 54, passed away November 22, 2021.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts he was a son of Gail B. (Emerson) and the late George H. Landry Jr.; father of Jessica Landry, Alex Landry, and Nicole Frechette; grandfather of Angel and Connor Frechette; brother of Holly Rougier, Joan DaCosta and the late George H. "Buddy" Landry II, Susan Deiss and Crystal Kitchen. He also leaves many nieces and nephews.

Sterling was enlisted and soon after became an honored Navy Seabee, wearing the title with great pride.

He learned many skills while conscripted, honing his prowess in carpentry, electrical, plumbing, and much more.

This knowledge served him greatly throughout his career as a handyman. One of his most revered achievements was using his craft to spend years reconstructing and renovating the Historic Weaver House located in East Providence, RI, in which he poured his blood, sweat, and tears into its full restoration.

He had a kindred soul that longed for fulfillment, which led him through all walks of life making friends everywhere he went. His intelligence was unmatched. When he would watch Jeopardy, he knew most of, if not all, the answers on the board.

Sterling's departed soul will be missed dearly as time continues, mourned by those his spirit touched. Gone but not forgotten, rest well and may peace find you.

A Committal Service will be held Tuesday, December 14th at 10:00 a.m. in the Mt. Hope Cemetery, Hortonville Road, Swansea, MA.
