guided her through life, always showing up for the people she loved with resilience and unwavering support. Family was at the center of everything she did, and she cherished the time spent with those closest to her.

She found joy in scuba diving and skeet shooting, and had a deep love for seafood, cooking, and watching cooking shows—simple pleasures that brought her happiness and that she often shared with others.

Services will be held privately with family members.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Theresa's memory to a charity or church of your choice.

She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
