

Virgil "Butch" Stegall

March 11, 2023

Virgil "Butch" Stegall, son of the late Evelyn W. Lynard and Virgil S. Stegall, born April 9, 1944 in Washington, D.C., peacefully passed away on Saturday, March 11, 2023 after a long illness.

He is survived by his loving wife of 54 years, Betty J. Stegall and their two children, his daughter Debra A. (Stegall) Morrison and her husband John Morrison and his son William S. Stegall and his wife Renée (Dubord) Stegall. He is also survived by his three grandchildren, Briana Stegall, Nicholas Morrison and Gavin Stegall who he was always so proud of and loved with all his heart. He is also survived by his loving sister Sharon Gaines of Maryland and several nephews and nieces.

Butch, Dad, Papa had an unbelievably kind soul and was always there if you needed him. He spent his life as a self-employed, extremely hard worker from the bar/restaurant in Washington DC, to his Pizza Plaza in Maryland to owning his Convenience Store in Warren, RI for many years. He was a great listener and friend to many people he met while working throughout his years. Most of all, he was, and will continue to be loved and cherished by his entire family. We will always remember his funny or "back in the day" stories or the one liners that we laughed at yet still to this day don't understand.

All we pray for now is that he finds his strength and can stand tall again!

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

DE

“ Deb lit a candle in memory of Virgil "Butch" Stegall ”

Deb - March 20, 2023 at 12:01 PM

DE

I love you dad and will miss you until the day we meet again!

Deb - March 20, 2023 at 12:02 PM

SG

“ Sharon Gaines lit a candle in memory of Virgil "Butch" Stegall ”

Sharon Gaines - March 17, 2023 at 01:37 PM

SG

🙏 Miss your fun loving personality .Rest in Peace my brother 🙏🙏❤️

Sharon Gaines - March 17, 2023 at 01:39 PM