

Walter David Richardson

August 14, 2025

Walter David Richardson, Sr., 64 of Oakland, passed away on August 14, 2025 at Oakland Grove Health Center.

He was the son of the late Elias Richardson, Jr. and Loris L. "Molly" (Macker) Richardson.

He is survived by his son, Walter D. Richardson, Jr., his daughter, Allysse (Richardson) Connor and her husband Shaun, all of Pascoag, as well as his beloved granddaughter, Molly Rose Connor. Walter also leaves behind his former wife and lifelong friend, Gloria (Perreault) McKay, her daughter Kelsey McKay, his little buddy, Jameson Martin, and his former mother-in-law and friend Julie (Blanchard) Perreault.

Walter was predeceased by his close brother, Wayne, in 2008. He is survived by brothers Tim, Elias III, and Roy, sisters Gaytha, Trudy, and Laura, as well as many nieces and nephews whom he loved dearly.

Walter was raised in South Uxbridge, MA on the family farm which was settled in the 1700s. There was little he loved more than caring for his animals and tending to his garden.

Walter worked for many years as a truck driver for Garelick Farms, often joking his children were “the milkman’s kids”. Walter then joined family at Richardson Wells and Pumps where he worked as a well driller for the remainder of his life.

Walter loved to have a good time and never met a stranger. He had a heart bigger than words and would give anyone the shirt off his back. He was fondly known as “Uncle Walt” to many. He will be sorely missed by those who loved him.

Walter decided not to have traditional funeral services. Interment will be private. A celebration of life will be announced soon.
