

Warren J. Lema

September 3, 1927 - December 26, 2024

Born in Providence, RI

Beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather "Papa"

Warren J. Lema, devoted husband to the late Nicole V. Lema and cherished father and grandfather, passed away surrounded by love and family. He is reunited with his late sons, Gary J. Lema and Michael W. Lema. Warren is survived by his children, Larry A. Lema (and his wife, Christine Lema), Warren Lema, Jerry Lema, and Darla Testa. He also leaves behind Michael's wife, Elizabeth Lema. His legacy lives on through his beloved grandchildren: Andrew, Matthew, Kevin, Caroline, and Kyle.

Warren's life was defined by his unwavering love, generosity, honesty, and kindness. He touched countless lives and will be deeply missed, but his spirit and the memories he created will live on forever in the hearts of those who knew him.

A proud patriot, Warren enlisted in the U.S. military as a teenager. He served his country with honor in World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnam War, contributing his expertise as a mechanic and fulfilling numerous other responsibilities during his decades of service.

In retirement, Warren embraced a life of adventure and joy. Alongside his beloved wife, Nicole, he traveled the globe, visiting nearly every continent. A skilled sailor, he captained his sailboat, Moonshadow, with pride and grace. Warren also found immense happiness on the golf course, where he shared many cherished moments with friends and family.

Warren's life was a testament to love, service, and the pursuit of happiness. His legacy will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know him.

Burial in Rhode Island Veterans Memorial Cemetery will be private.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ 10 files added to the album memories

chris - January 04, 2025 at 08:51 AM